

So ye enters...

Hello there visitor. From hence do ye hail? You've entered a realm of shadows, be aware. The sources of light in the back are nigh illusions, come for your assistance. Take the time you need and explore to your hearts desire, explore the shadow!

Excuse the strange language above, I like playing with words and realms of speech. Anyways, do enjoy your time here and come again. Please feel free to email me any suggestions at tws@rotws.com if you have any!
